RUMOR ANGLO AMERICAN GERMAN LOAN

1,400,000,000 GOLD MARKS REPUTED SUM

American, British and Dutch Financiers Reported Negotiating on Big Credit

LOAN OFFERED ONLY TO STRESEMAN GOVERNMENT

Money to be Used to Back the New Gold Note Issue

BERLIN.—By The Associated Press.—With regard to reports of the impending conclusion of an Anglo-American loan to Germany, the German press today says that negotiations are in progress between a well-known Berlin bank and a group of American, British, and Dutch financiers for a credit to Germany of 1,400,000,000 gold marks.

The granting of this credit, says the newspaper, is dependent upon the conclusion that there is no change in the international political situation in Germany, and that the offer be made only to the Stresemann government.

The guarantee for the loan is to be assumed by the German government rather than by private industry, continues the paper, adding that international capital probably will be loaned in the gold note bank which is proposed to establish.

German Food Short

BERLIN.—Experts estimate that the German population will need three-fourths of its population without imported food. In other words, Germany has at least fifteen million more mouths than she can sustain. This estimate is based on a greatly reduced rate of consumption. It also contemplates the use of nearly all the available food for food and none of it for brewing of beer.

The find was made last Thursday night.

Reed resigned his police position on Friday morning.

BRITISH DELAY AGREEMENT ON NOTE TO GERMANY; PLAN MAY POSTPONE ALLIED SPLIT

PARIS.—By the Associated Press.—The meeting of the Council of Ambassadors, called for five o'clock Tuesday afternoon, will not be held, it was announced shortly after 4:00 p. m. Lord Grey, the British ambassador, notified the secretariat that his government, owing to stress of business, was unable to communicate his instructions in time for the meeting. The instructions are expected to arrive in season for a meeting Wednesday.

Have a Solution

After six days of negotiations, four meetings and five adjournments, the ambassadors' council has hit on a compromise formula for dealing with Germany, which even if it only postpones the evil hour of decision, as many maintain, at least also postpones a break in the allied front.

The feeling here Tuesday was just as optimistic as it was pessimistic Monday, for the agreement to send a note to Germany has been fully endorsed by the French and Belgian cabinets and, judging from the tone of London, will be endorsed by the British.

In the proposed note, the allies will demand that their military control officers shall be allowed to function under adequate protection.

See Crisis Passing

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—Ambassadors.—British government officials considered this morning that all danger of disagreement with France on the question of the former crown prince and the resumption of inter-allied military control in Germany had passed. They expected that the council of ambassadors would reach a compromise, unless an unforeseen obstacle intervened at the last moment.

It was pointed out that the question now was largely one of appropriate phraseology, in which to strike a mean between the two divergent viewpoints. The proposed joint note to Germany will not be in the form of an ultimatum, nor will it give the Germans a time limit within which they must comply with the allied conditions. Neither will it demand an immediate formal reply.

Supervisors See Results of Modern Surgical "Miracle"

Gretchen McDonald of Mindoro Crippled for 14 Years, Now Able to Walk Normally

TREATED AT BRADLEY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL BY DR. J. E. GAENSELIN

Ask $3,000 More for the Black River Project

MEMBERS of the county board were given visible proof of a miracle in modern surgery Tuesday morning when Mary A. Regan, county nurse, presented 17-year-old Gretchen McDonald of Mindoro, whose right leg was three inches shorter than the other leg and who had to walk on the toes of her right foot, as a result of an attack of infantile paralysis when she was three years old. Now the girl can walk nearly as well as a normal person.

In Hospital Three Months

This modern surgical miracle, if it can be called that, took place from August 14 to November 1. On August 14 the girl was sent to the Bradley Memorial hospital, at Madison, for an orthopedic operation. Her case was attended by Dr. J. E. Gaenslein. The expenses of the operation and treatment were defrayed by the county and the state. On November 1 the girl returned to her home in Mindoro. She was able to walk with both feet flat on the ground. She still wears a brace on her right ankle, because that member still is a trifle weak.

Photographs of Gretchen's distorted right foot and ankle before the operation and her foot after the operation were shown to the members of the board and Gretchen was also present to give actual proof of the success of the operation which was brought about through the efforts of Miss Regan, who induced the girl's parents to permit their daughter to be operated on by Dr. Gaenslein, the noted orthopedic specialist.

Miss Regan also submitted her annual report to the supervisors.

Asks $3,000 More for Black River

Supervisor Olsen submitted a report on the cost of the Black River improvement project, showing that the total expenditures to date are $10,127.74, of which $93.40 for sand and brush, bought from Funk & Rasmussen, has not been paid. An appropriation of $3,000 additional funds, to complete the work of damming several small breaks and also to maintain the work already done until after the first high water is asked. The appropriation and report was made a special order for Tuesday afternoon.

In the itemized bill submitted by Olsen was an item for $600 for per diem pay for the three supervisors on the special committee, Olsen, Knudsen and Goldard. Supervisors Knudsen and Val Keppel asked Olsen to explain the item and Supervisor Olsen said that the $600 included the mileage and per diem of the supervisors who supervised the operations from the start to finish. Keppel wanted to know if that was necessary because of poor foremen and Olsen said that the work was done faster and better when the supervisors were on the job.

TAX REDUCTION HIT; COOLIDGE TO PROPOSE IT

Reception from Country Leaves no Doubt of its Popularity

UNCERTAIN ABOUT STAND TO TAKE UPON THE BONUS

Difficulty in Ascertaining its Total Cost

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1923.)

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The country has gotten behind the proposal to reduce taxes. There is no longer any doubt about that at the White House and President Coolidge is formulating his message to be delivered to congress with the idea that the American people want their taxes reduced.

By letters, telegrams, newspaper editorials, personal calls from members of congress, the administration has learned that the demand for tax revision is almost unanimous. Public opinion has crystallized rapidly. President Coolidge feels he can go ahead with recommendations to congress that will have behind them the momentum of national opinion at the outset.

Bonus in Doubt

The president is anxious to get the views of house and senate leaders before sending his message to the printers. But the members are slow in drifting back to Washington so Mr. Coolidge is unable to get their reaction to public affairs as quick as he would like to have it. He would like to know for instance, just how he should treat the soldier bonus proposal. The politicians say he can not avoid offering a program for soldier aid because it is inevitable that the democratic candidates for the presidency will urge it. William Gibbs McAdoo has been quoted as saying the government could revise taxes and pay a bonus too. Since Mr. McAdoo was at one time secretary of the treasury himself, his observations are taken seriously, especially by the bonus men who say he ought to know.

Amount Uncertain

The difficulty about the bonus, however, is not the question of whether it ought to be paid. Sentiment for the payment of the bonus if the government could afford it would be almost unanimous, as there have been relatively few attacks against the bonus in principle. The greatest factor is really the uncertainty as to the amount of annual outlay that would be needed. The advocates and opponents of the measure disagree as to the total cost. In the face of such a situation it is hardly likely that the president would simply come out in favor of a bonus without discovering some way of meeting the payments, however large they may be. The prospects at the moment are that the president will not recommend a bonus for the able bodied but will deal with the re-organization of the veterans' bureau which is charged with the duty of making payments to the disabled service men. This would leave it to congress again to take the initiative. It will be recalled that Mr. Harding did not start the bonus agitation but expressed his views after congress had put the matter up to him.

President Coolidge feels that he gave his pledge to the country to follow out the Harding policies. Mr. Harding voted the bonus bill. But he did suggest that there be a tax revision before the end of the present administration. In his annual message of December 6, 1921, Mr. Harding said:

Harding for Tax Cut

"It would suggest insincerity if I expressed complete accord with every expression recorded in your roll calls, but we all are agreed about the difficulties and the inevitable divergence of opinion in seeking the reduction, amelioration and readjustment of the burdens of taxation. Later on, when other problems are solved, I shall make some recommendations about renewed consideration of our tax program."

Mr. Harding could not have postponed the execution of that promise until the presidential campaign or a second term. Close friends say he favored making it a part of his program this year though he realized the political dangers of putting a tax revision measure into congress with the republican party divided by radicalism. Mr. Coolidge hopes, however, that enough republicans will stand by the tax program together with the conservative democrats so that tax reduction can be accomplished.

The outlook at the moment for such a coalition is bright.

FAN BREAKS ARM ROOTING FOR HERO

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—There are fans and fans, but when a man breaks an arm in enthusiasm over a touchdown, he belongs in football's hall of fame.

Joseph McKenzie, an attendant at a local hospital, witnessed the football game on Northrop field here Saturday between the Universities of Minnesota and Iowa, and when Captain Earl Martindale of the Gophers scored a forward pass to Ray Ekland, he shouted himself hoarse. But when Ekland ran over the Iowa goal for the opening touchdown of the contest, which ended 20 to 7 for the Gophers, McKenzie snatched off his hat and waved it. He waved so hard he broke his arm.

He is reported doing well and still enthusiastic.

INDIAN SUSTAINS FRACTURED SKULL IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Thunder Cloud Steps in Front of Approaching Auto on South Third Street

REPORTED TO BE RESTING EASILY AT ST. FRANCIS

Police Ambulance in Smash When Responding to Call

STEPPING out in front of an automobile driven by I. O. Holly, 600 King street, Thunder Cloud, Indian living in the encampment at Hunter's bridge, sustained a fracture at the base of his skull when he was knocked to the pavement at Third and Jay streets before the automobile could be stopped.

Not Critical

Thunder Cloud is reported not to be in critical condition at the St. Francis hospital. The accident occurred about 4:45 Monday afternoon.

In responding to the call with the ambulance, police were involved in an accident at the intersection of Third and Pearl streets, J. O. Black, driving a Dodge coupe, turning to the left at the corner and ramming the ambulance amidships, smashing the running board. The ambulance was able to continue.

Police reported that Holly was driving south on Third street, and when approaching Jay street, Thunder Cloud stepped out from the curb in front of the auto. He was struck a glancing blow, but fell to the pavement.

Ear Affected

At the hospital Thunder Cloud complained of deafness in his left ear, but Dr. D. S. Smith, ear specialist attending him, was unable to give a diagnosis of the case as yet. Thunder Cloud was reported to be resting easily.

Officer Kiek, driving the ambulance when the two cars collided on Third street, said the strike was going full blast and that he had believed the Dodge coupe had pulled to one side to let him pass. Instead, the car made a left turn and rammed into the running board of the ambulance.

TO ASK U. S. COURTS FOR INTERVENTION

Ousted Executive to Claim He Was Not Given Fair Trial on the Charges

NEW TRIAL APPLICATION REJECTED BY THE SENATE

Convicted on Eleven of Sixteen Charges Made by the House

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—By The Associated Press.—J. C. Walton's gubernatorial career, as spectacular as it was brief, is over.

Deposed by the verdict of a senate court of impeachment Monday night, which found him guilty of charges of moral turpitude, corruption in office, neglect of duty and incompetence, his term of office as Oklahoma's fifth governor was broken off after little more than ten months, sensational to the last.

But as his successor prepared formally to take over the reins of government today, Walton girded for a last desperate effort to retain the office by invoking the aid of the United States courts, charging maliciously to the plea that he has not been given a fair trial, with the promise of more dramatics yet to come.

Conviction Unanimous

Walton's removal was decreed last night by unanimous vote of the senate court after he had been convicted of eleven of the sixteen impeachment articles upon which he was prosecuted.

When the final vote had been taken, chief of counsel for the executive laid an application for a new trial before the court, which was promptly rejected. Walton last night angrily refused to comment on the action of the court.

The last evidence in the trial, before the senate was polled on the charges, was introduction of an official oath of Governor Walton that he spent $3,520 on campaign expenses. This came shortly after Dr. R. T. Byrum, former executive councillor, had testified that contributions to the campaign, fund from E. W. Marland, president of the Marland Oil and Refining company and from the Royal Dutch Shell Oil company had totaled $73,000.

Legislature to Recess

Announcement was made at the office of Governor M. E. Trapp today that the state legislature would be asked to recess at once until the second week in January.

The senate met briefly Tuesday morning and adjourned until afternoon. In the senate only a few formalities were exchanged, including expressions of appreciation of press representatives for courtesies extended to J. C. Walton.

May Impeach Walton Aid

W. E. Disney, chairman of the house board of managers, announced that articles of impeachment against Charles H. Ruth, supreme court commissioner, were being prepared. Ruth who has long been a political associate of Walton, was appointed to his present position by the deposed governor.

Disney indicated that most of the evidence on which the Ruth impeachment charges are based had been given to the committee by Mrs. Patrick S. Nagle, member of the state board of affairs, of which Ruth was chairman prior to his appointment as a supreme court commissioner.

Members of the house board of managers said that should the impeachment articles against Ruth be adopted by the house and filed with the senate court, the trial probably would require not more than two days.

SANTA CLAUS IS ON HIS WAY TO GATEWAY CITY

George Bracken Fixes Northern Lights so Milky Way is all Right

Santa Claus is on his way to La Crosse.

These gladsome tidings were received early Tuesday morning by A. E. Anderson, chairman of the Christmas committee.

Despite the report of the bad roads on the Milky Way and the failure of the Northern Lights to properly illuminate the route, the Jolly old saint is actually on his way. The report of bad roads was found to be untrue, and George Bracken, who has charge of the lighting for the opening, got on the job and fixed the trouble with the Northern Lights, and everything is hunky-dory. The following radiogram tells the story:

Dear La Crosse Kilt:

I'm on my way to be with you for Christmas. Don't believe any stories you may hear about my not getting there for you know Santa Claus never disappoints anybody ever. The road over the Milky Way is perfect and George Bracken fixed the Northern Lights. I'll be with you about noon on Saturday, December 1st. Be on hand to meet me.

SANTA CLAUS.

With this assurance, the Christmas Committee has taken a new lease on life, and has redoubled its efforts. It has promised many surprises for the grand opening, which will take place Friday, November 30th at eight p. m. Cards are now being distributed entitling holders to participate in the giving of prizes and may be had at all stores.

The opening this year gives one extra day of Christmas shopping.

HEAVY PAYMENTS MADE TO VICTIMS OF ODD HAZARDS

Insurance Company Tells of Freak Policies Written by the Firm

HARTFORD, Conn. — Splinters, small as they are, have a high financial standing with the insurance companies. A silver, it seems, has a mean way of becoming an accident, especially when it makes the right kind of connection with an insured anatomy. A report on accident claims, just made public by the Aetna Life Insurance Company, shows that during a period of 12 months 121 persons were paid a total of $12,088 by this company as consolation for contemplating with slivers.

A further study of the report, which includes an analysis of more than 10,000 accident claims, discloses that 21 persons were paid $3,380 for getting out of bed the wrong way. Then from the remaining multitude who got up safely and reached the bath room, 20 victims skidded on the soap and were planted so forcefully among them as compensation for the early morning burst of speed. In most cases, the next hazard of the day started when the stairs were reached. A too rapid descent in the case of 369 persons was charged against the company to the extent of $34,598. The inoffensive rug was another ever-present danger. As a result of 505 persons being thrown to the floor by insecure rugs, the sum of $44,857 was distributed from the company's treasury.

Airplanes were responsible for but two claims. One pilot received $30.71 for a slight injury sustained while cranking his motor, and a passenger was paid $47.50 for a bump received when a plane "lurched." The automobile drivers, however, were not so lucky. For 304 persons collected more than $50,000 for injuries suffered in "turning her over."

Birds, animals and insects, according to the report, became affectionate with 118 insured persons, who were paid $7,947 for "bites." Tight clothing and shoes chafed 123 persons, who were paid a total of $13,745 for their injuries.

Hunters, golfers and automobilists made up most of the 56 victims who collected $2,800 as a result of coming in contact with poison plants and shrubbery. These also were the heaviest sufferers from foreign particles in the eyes, which brought claim checks to 269 persons. Burns caused by matches and cigar lighters were reported by 35 persons, who were paid $705.

Collision insurance was paid during the period of 5 dancers and 20 gymnasts. In each case the injury was received in colliding with another person.

Claims aggregating $17,097 were paid to 215 baseball players, the report shows. Severely players were injured in collisions with "flying or falling objects," and 75 others in sliding to base. Collisions with "flying or falling objects" on the golf course injured 16 players, while 9 others received monetary compensation for falling into "ditches, trenches or other excavations."

TRIANGLE DEBATE TRYOUT WILL BE HELD AT NORMAL

Eight Speakers to be Picked to Represent the School
Tonight

The first tryout for the annual triangular debate of the La Crosse Normal school will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. Eight members will be picked from the contestants and a later contest will decide which of the eight shall be regular team members and which alternates.

The subject for the debate this year is: Resolved: that the French policy in the Ruhr is justifiable from the impartial viewpoint of world policies. Prof. Marshall Goff will have charge of drilling the members of the two teams.

The Sappho-Literary society is assisting with the debate tryout this evening and are furnishing the following numbers on the program: vocal solo, Miss Isabelle Peterson; reading, Miss Geneva Widener; piano solo, Miss Evelyn Butler; and reading, Miss Vera Jensen.

The first debate will be held in March. The local school will meet Stevens Point and Oshkosh. The winner of this triangle will represent the district in a final debate that will be held between the three winners from the nine normal schools of the state.

RELIGIOUS LIBERALS NOW PLANNING NEW CHURCH MOVEMENT

Plan to Bring all Liberals Into
One Big Church of United States and Canada

CHICAGO—To bring into "one big church" every religious liberal of the United States and Canada, "so that men and women may live true religious lives socially, industrially, professionally and politically under modern conditions instead of trying to live divided," is the program of the Federation of Religious Liberals, launched recently according to announcement by Curtis W. Reese, chairman of the executive committee.

The Federation already is supported in its movement by the national conference of the Religious Society of Friends, the American Unitarian association, the central conference of American Catholics, and the Universalist general conference. Invitation has been extended to additional liberal religious bodies "and to independent societies and those ministers, who, while ostensibly denominationalists, range subscribe wholeheartedly to fundamentalist doctrine," said the announcement.

Instead of trying to live divided, at times violently, into intolerant groups governed by archaic and dead fundamentalist doctrines, the Federation plans to establish in a concrete sense the "big church" to which inherently religious or "average" men have claimed to "belong" when not willing to be identified with orthodox denominations," Mr. Reese asserted.

"While it is a challenge to the fundamentalists combating the scientific to education and religion, more specifically the theory of evolution, we will not work in opposition to those denominationalists but endeavor to help them."

Members of the executive committee include, among others, representatives of the following religious bodies: Unitarian, Friends, Episcopal, Quaker, Congregational and Hebrew.

OBSCURE COWBOY WINS FAME DABBLING WITH HIS BRUSHES

MISSTULA, Mont.—A cowboy genius. Out of the obscurity of a Montana prairie rises Charles M. Russell, a rider of the range, to an eminent position in the art world as a painter of frontier life.

The story of this man who was found wandering over the prairie 12 years ago, hungry and alone, is as striking and as spectacular as his pictures, one of which has been purchased by the Prince of Wales for $10,000.

The Duke of Cornwall also has bought one, as has a California millionaire, who paid $10,000 for Mr. Russell's "The Salute to the Robe Trade."

Hoover Finds Him
More than two score years ago Jake Hoover, known then as one of the best hunters in the Montana territory, came upon a 15-year-old boy seated beside a campfire in eastern Montana.

"What're you doin' here?" asked Hoover.

"Campin'," replied the youth. "Campin' here? Where's your grub?"

"Ain't got any."

"Then come with me," directed the trapper. "I've got grub and a camp a short ways from here. I've got lots of elk meat and it will feel pretty good in that empty belly of yours."

Without a word the youth arose, put out his fire and followed his newfound friend, and thus Charles Marion Russell found a real home in the west and became a citizen of Montana.

First Work
In Hoover's cabin Russell began his paintings. He had only school water colors and his work was crude. He did his painting at evening, after his day's work was done, and he did it for the fun he got out of it.

Russell was born in St. Louis, Mar. 19, 1865. He hated the city and was delighted when his parents removed to the country to live. He was discontent again when they returned.

to St. Louis and he ran away from home.

He is a self-taught artist—an example of genius developed through perseverance and love of his theme. His first picture to bring him national prominence was "The Last of the Mohicans," a title which has become a byword in Montana.

It depicts a lone cow about to die of hunger and exposure and a coyote waiting for her to drop. It represents the last of 5000 head of cattle which perished in a series of blizzards which struck eastern Montana in the eighties.

When he was just beginning to get recognition, he met Nancy Cooper, then 17. Both were living at Cascade, Mont., and Miss Cooper became his nurse when he was taken ill. They were married as soon as he recovered.

He had to borrow $10, half of which he paid to the minister and half to set up desks for "the boys."

A picture of the Northwest Mounted Police was purchased some time ago for the halls of Parliament in Saskatchewan, Canada.

The Prince of Wales, on a visit, saw the picture and expressed a desire for one like it. The Canadian government then arranged to purchase "When Law Dulls the Edge of Chance," for which the prince paid $10,000.

HANDKERCHIEF CHOKES BOY
CHICAGO—Playing "wild west movies" in his home here on Saturday, Frederick Roach, 13, tied his necktie to a water pipe running along the ceiling and fell, choking to death. His brother, Steven, 10, who witnessed the accident, summoned aid, but physicians were too late.

BUTCHER'S GUEST CHOKES
TO DEATH ON PORK CHOP MILWAUKEE—Frank Gallista, 48 of 470 American avenue, choked to death Sunday night on a pork chop. Mr. Gallista was having dinner Sunday night at the home of his brother, Louis C. Riege, 101 Lee street, a meat dealer, when a piece of meat he was eating lodged in his throat.

FATHERS DIE ON SAME DAY
GRAND FORKS, N. D.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. La Voie of Grand Forks were both notified of the death of their respective fathers, Mr. La Voie's father, Napoleon La Voie, died at Brooks, Minn., and the death of Mrs. La Voie's parent, Charles Burr, occurred a few hours later at East Grand Forks.

PLANE COLLISION
CAUSES PILOT'S DEATH SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—First Lieut. Paul T. Wagner, 33, was burned so seriously when his plane caught fire after a spectacular collision in the air with a plane piloted by First Lieut. Walter R. Peck, that he died at the Kelly Field hospital early Sunday afternoon in connection with the Army Relief fund tie carnival in spite of a drizzling rain.

AMERICA'S FUR MARKET CONTROLS TRADE OF WORLD

St. Louis Lays Claim to Being Raw Fur Market of the World

ST. LOUIS—St. Louis which was one of the first fur trading posts in America, bases its claim of being the raw fur market of the world primarily on its central location.

Virtually at the confluence of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, trapping a century and a half ago paddled down these natural carriers with their racks of pelts to dispose of them in St. Louis.

It was at this time that Pierre Laclede established the first trading post in this vicinity, and one of the chief commodities it handled was furs. On establishing the post Laclede expressed the opinion that the site might become a "right considerable settlement." A granite boulder at the foot of Market street here marks the spot where the post was established.

Although the largest fur sales were held in London for many years, St. Louis never lost its prominence as a fur market, and with the outbreak of the world war the sales swung back to the American city.

Sixty per cent of the raw furs of the United States are disposed of in St. Louis, according to P. B. Fouke, prominent local fur dealer. Mr. Fouke estimates that local dealers pay $15,000,000 to trappers for the four months' work every year.

In addition to the sale of American furs all through the winter, several millions of dollars of pelts are sold at the semi-annual public auctions, which are attended by buyers from all parts of the world. The sale of government skins usually precedes these sales. Every variety of fur, from the lowly house cat to the expensive Russian sable, is offered at the auctions.

FAMILY FOUND DEAD FIRST DAY IN NEW RESIDENCE

ROCKFORD, Ill.—Four persons were found dead on Sunday in a house into which they had moved Saturday night. Coroner's physicians as yet have been unable to ascertain cause of death, although either gas or food poisoning is suspected.

The dead are: John Werner, 45, tailor; Mrs. John Werner, 45, his wife; Karine Werner, 21, their daughter, kindergarten teacher; Eric Volmer, 26, roomer.

The bodies were discovered on Sunday when relatives from Janesville, Wis., visited the home.

Test This Out For Yourself—

MANY people who drink coffee regularly are troubled with insomnia; or they feel nervous, "head-achy," or suffer from indigestion.

It may be hard for such men and women to believe that coffee is responsible for the way they feel. Because they have always drunk coffee, it hardly seems possible that this old habit could cause trouble.

But there is one sure way to find out whether coffee is harming you. Just stop its use for a week or so, and drink Postum.

Postum is a pure cereal beverage—absolutely free from caffeine, the drug in coffee, which disturbs the health and comfort of many.

After a week or two on Postum, you will sleep better and feel better; then your own good judgment should decide whether you go back to coffee or continue on the Road to Wellville with Postum.

Sold by grocers everywhere!

Postum

for Health

"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water; Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes. The cost of either form is about one-half cent a cup.

MISLEADS MOB TO SPIRIT NEGRO TO CELL FOR SAFETY

Alleged Assailant of Kentucky Woman is Removed to Nearby County

OWENSBORO, Ky.—James Freeman, 23 negro, alleged to have attacked Mrs. W. M. Stiles, 55, was led to the Davies county jail here Tuesday for safekeeping following his arrest.

After Freeman had been arrested on suspicion and taken before Mrs. Stiles, who said she believed he was the guilty person, he was sent to the county jail. In charge of deputies, Freeman was taken to the jail and permitted to stay at his home and get some medicine. The deputies waited at the front porch. Finally they became impatient and entered the house only to find that the prisoner had disappeared.

Later he was found hiding under the floor of the house by Sheriff Roberts who sent members of a large posse which had gathered to help in the search, off on a false trail, and brought the negro here and placed him in jail.

GOVERNOR CHARGES ATTEMPT TO SPLIT PROGRESSIVE RANKS

Blaine Scores Organized Move to "Defeat Equitable System of Taxation"

LIKENS CONTEST TO LA FOLLETTE
CAMPAIGN OF TWENTY YEARS AGO

Executive Outlines Tax Legislation Record of Last Legislature

JANESVILLE, Wis.—An organized effort is at work in Wisconsin, having for its aim the division of progressive forces and the defeat of an "equitable and just system" of taxation, Governor John J. Blaine said here Thursday night, speaking at a public meeting sponsored by the local Eagles club. The governor outlined a campaign against this force which he said recently has been organized.

"There is an organized effort in Wisconsin to divide the forward looking progressive forces, paying for its avowed purpose, the defeat of an equitable and just system of taxation," Governor Blaine said. "Those who are engaged in that undertaking, are giving aid and comfort to organized plunder and assisting the reactionaries in defeating the will of the people. They not only are giving such aid and comfort but they have, through their legislative record and by their activity, joined their fortunes with those whose principal object is to defeat proper taxation legislation and to exploit the people. There can be no compromise."

Promises "Roll Call"
The governor declared it is his intention to "give the people of the state the roll call that shows those who are for equity and justice, for the masses and those who have defeated that equity and justice in taxation."

"The contest in Wisconsin is exactly what it was 20 years ago under the administration of Governor La Follette. The situation in the last two legislatures is parallel to the situation that prevailed in those days. During Governor La Follette's first term, both houses of the legislature were against him. He then entered upon a campaign to obtain a legislature that would co-operate with him. He succeeded as to the assembly. He failed as to the senate, and for the third time it became necessary for him to go to the people and seek the election of members of both houses who would carry out the pledges of those days, and he succeeded."

"Two years ago both houses refused to co-operate with the governor. I felt it my duty in the last campaign to have elected if possible, a legislature that would co-operate. We succeeded only in part. To the assembly, there was an overwhelming majority of the progressive republicans elected. It is a sad commentary, however, that some of those who were so elected betrayed their constituents and the state. The senate, however, lacked at least two, if not four, of the necessary votes to pass legislation to which we were pledged. The history of that legislature bears out the belief I then had and I find that we were short three votes necessary to bring about relief demanded by the people."

History Repeating Itself
"Therefore the contest is on again. We will see repeated the history of twenty years ago, and it becomes necessary, in my interpretation, to read the will of the people correctly, to read the senate and to displace those men who violated their party obligations with men who will hold sacred their political promises and pledges. This contest must go on until the progressive movement vindicates its right to the continued support of the suffrage of our people. The fight may be a long and bitter one. I accept the challenge."

Governor Blaine outlined at length the history of tax measures in the last legislature, declaring that certain of the measures would have greatly decreased the tax burden on corporations and increased taxes on the people. He said that Senate Bill 314, known as the "Governor's bill," eliminated the discriminations existing between individuals, co-partnerships and corporations yet did not decrease the corporation tax. It took the burden off the weak and placed it on the stronger shoulders. It did not discriminate against the smaller corporations, preserving the present theory of the law of a graduated tax both as to individuals and corporations. It readjusted the burdens of taxation. "This measure, the governor said, was killed in the senate by a vote of thirteen to eighteen, with one pair. He gave the complete roll call of the vote on the measure."

Battle Lines Drawn
"On taxation measures, this is the roll call that will become familiar to every man and woman whom I can reach. Upon the question of taxation, the battle lines are drawn as defined by this record," the governor added. "I have no doubt but that the history of 20 years ago will repeat itself in 1924 and seats now filled by senators who betrayed the party pledge will be vacant and only men of such integrity that their political promises cannot be doubted will fill such vacant seats. Moreover, seats will not be vacated by any doorkeeper kidnapping a senator. If I can judge the will of the people, the kidnapping of senators will be by way of the votes at the ballot box."

MULE JUMPS INTO AUTO; DRIVER HURT

HURON, S. D.—Frank E. Davenport while driving along a county road near here, ran into a team of mules attached to a road grader. To save himself, one of the mules jumped into the machine, breaking the windshield and the steering wheel and getting its front feet so badly tangled that before the car could be stopped it had pulled the mule through a barbed wire fence 50 feet away and into a plowed field. The mule was cut by the broken glass but was otherwise unhurt. Davenport's nose was broken by the mule's head and he was otherwise badly cut and bruised.

TOWN OF TOMAH TEACHER FREED OF ASSAULT CHARGE

Genivieve Gabower Found Not Guilty; Washed Mouth of Pupil Who Swore

TOMAH, Wis.—Miss Genivieve Gabower, school teacher, tried in Justice Lamm's court on Saturday, Nov. 17, for assault on the person of Cyril Gerke, aged five years, was found not guilty of the charge. The father of the boy, Bert Gerke, caused the arrest of Miss Gabower on Nov. 16, and the young lady appeared the following day in Sparta for a preliminary examination, and was held for trial. Her father, August Gabower, of Tomah, went her bail for $400. The arrest of Miss Gabower and her subsequent trial, caused a great stir throughout Monroe county, and is regarded as a test case in the matter of the right of a teacher in the punishing a pupil for refractory conduct and the use of obscene language.

The facts of the case are that on October 11 Miss Gabower, who is a teacher in School District No. 6, Town of Tomah, on several occasions talked kindly to Cyril Gerke for his swearing on the school premises, finding that the usual methods of correction failed. Miss Gabower washed out the mouth of the youth with soap, hoping thereby to cure him of his bad habit. At first the matter made little stir in the district, but after two weeks and after Miss Gabower had duly apologized to the parents of the lad for her stern measures. Bert Gerke had a warrant for her arrest served on Miss Gabower and she was held for trial.

The trial came off on Saturday with J. G. Graham of Tomah as counsel for the defense and T. E. Abel of Sparta as counsel for the prosecution. The court room was packed with interested spectators, many of them, Monroe county's rural school teachers, all anxious to learn their rights first hand. Gerke had but two witnesses, his five-year-old son, Cyril, and another son seven years old. Miss Gabower had as her witnesses, M. M. Hancy, county superintendent of schools, Miss Pearl Becker, director of the Teachers' Training course, Tomah High school, and at least a dozen families of School District No. 6 of Tomah.

A trial by jury was accorded Miss Gabower and the jury was out a quarter of an hour returning a verdict not guilty. A bill of evidence brought out in the trial was that Miss Jennie Webster, county supervising teacher, regards Miss Gabower as one of the three best teachers in Monroe county at the present time, which completely vindicates her.

BADGER TEAM NOT DAMAGED BY GAME LOST ON SATURDAY

Irish Has Broken Finger But Will be all Right for Chicago Scrap

MADISON, Wis. — Coach Jack Ryan Monday afternoon put his Badger football men through a light skid practice and Tuesday a lengthy scrimmage game which will continue throughout the week will get under way. Ryan reviewed his men at Camp Randall Monday, finding that the entire team had come through the Michigan game last Saturday in excellent condition.

Irish, and sustained a broken finger against the Wolverines but will be in shape for the Chicago game this week, it is reported. Other injuries were minor.

The Badgers will spend the week perfecting tactics used against Michigan, it is said.

LUTHER SEMINARY MALE CHOIR IS TO SING HERE

A rare treat for all lovers of, and especially for those who enjoy, the rendering of classical church music by male voices, is in store for La Crosse, when the Lutheran Seminary Male Choir sings here Saturday evening, November 21, at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, West avenue and Division streets.

This is a return engagement of this famous group of singers from St. Paul, Minn. Last year they sang in Our Saviour's church before a packed house.

As a musical organization this male choir has existed for twenty-seven years. This year, the music critics say it has one of the best choirs of its history. The program, too, is of unusual merit. This choir of twenty-three voices presents in a program of sacred song, some of the finest classics in church music, ancient and modern. Of characteristic dignity are the chorale "Gentle As to Do With Zeal," by Bach, and "The Morning Star," by Niziol. "Lo, How a Rose Ere Blooming," by Praetorius, is a composition of lyrical sweetness. Pergolesi's jubilant Christmas song, "Glory to God in the Highest," offers an appealing variety in its solo, duo and trio parts, and full chorus. A Scandinavian group includes numbers by Grieg and Kjerulf. The program reaches a climax in the celebrated "Hallelujah Amen!" by Handel.

LIFE CONTACTS DEVELOP IDEALS MAKE CHARACTER

"Partakers of the divine nature" is a Bible assurance which seems to have little credence with those who think only in a superficial way about life. But it is not so unreasonable to those who look deeper, and who realize that this refers not to man's physical being but to his deeper soul nature, created "in the image of God." Thus did Reverend Claude Shaver introduce a rather difficult theme, "Life Contacts with the Infinite," at the evening service of First Presbyterian church on Sunday. Continuing, the minister said in part:

"We know that all life is continued in generation by contact with a similar nature. Hence, when we speak of developing partakers of the divine nature we must begin with this principle of contacts; farther recognizing that these associations must be spiritual, as is God himself, rather than physical, as is the lower life of man. Taking, then, the consciousness of man, in its spiritual realms of intellect, feeling and will, we find at once three channels of communion readily opening between the human and the divine. There is the thought channel, through which men meet God in ideals of justice, honor, purity and right. Efforts to appreciate these heavenly virtues soon harmonize the soul of man into receptivity, even as the delicate network of the radio receiver is harmonized for receptivity in wireless intercourse.

"But there must be usually a transformer of some kind to modify the current in order that it may be apprehended. So there is an intermediate agency between God and man who has said 'No man cometh unto the Father but me.' These familiar words of Jesus Christ are more comprehensible in this age of scientific invention, since they help us to appreciate His special mission as an intermediary between the human and the divine. When the Apostle Peter first met Jesus by the seashore of long ago, he began to have different thoughts from what he had ever had before. He saw himself in the white light of heaven's truth. All his faults and deficiencies stood out until, in shame, he cried 'Depart from me, for I am a sinful man.' Then he began to have entirely new conceptions of the Creator in his relations to earthly beings. Thoughts of God as father and benefactor of common man opened up the second doorway of communication, through the emotions, or 'heart,' as the scriptures term it.

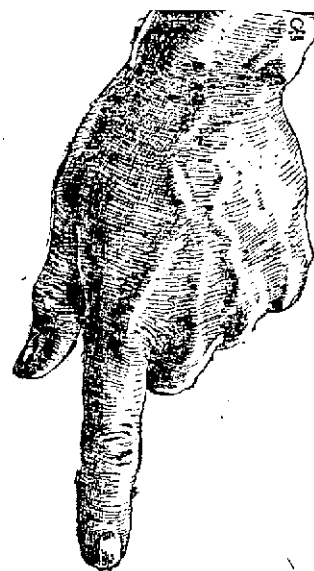

"I think we may agree that there are no full life contacts until there is heart to heart communion. Intellect alone is not sufficient, making an ill balanced being. At this beginning of 'education week,' it may be well to pause and emphasize this fact, that teaching can not be successful when the appeal is only to the mind. Education must develop the sensibilities along the lines of heavenly love. Hence Jesus, the great teacher, made his approach to earthly creatures in fraternal appeal to the heart life. Note his friendly intercourse in the market place and by the seashore. See his dramatic sacrifice at Calvary, fulfilling his own maxim, 'Greater love hath no-man than this.' As human lives respond to these divine overtures of truth, formulated definite life purposes of helpfulness in accord with the spirit of Jesus Christ."

CHICAGO DENTIST • HELD FOR MILLION DOLLAR BURGLARY

Alleged to be Brains of Big Chicago Band of Cracks-men

CHICAGO, Ill.—Charges of burglary, conspiracy and receiving stolen property have been leveled against Dr. Spencer Brown, dentist and dentist, held in connection with the $1,000,000 robbery of a month ago of the Western Brothers' warehouse, former Chicago's largest jewelry store. Detective Charles Hughes after attorneys for the dentist, who was arrested Saturday night, announced that habeas corpus action will be started.

Meanwhile search is being made for the dentist's wife, reported to have left their summer home at Antioch, Ill., with suitcases, believed by detectives to contain loot. None of the loot which police say have been traced to Brown were found. In his apartment, he denies the charges.

GETS LITTLE SISTER TO DRIVE RAZOR IN SUICIDE EFFORT

QUITMAN, Ga.—Mrs. Sadie Thompson, 23, is in a serious condition here after an alleged attempt to end her own life with the aid of her five-year-old sister. Proceeding over alleged domestic troubles, she put a razor in her mouth and told her little sister to press on it. A deep gash was cut, and turning the other side of her head, she again had the little girl push on the weapon. The little girl rushed home and told her parents.

CROKER'S CHILDREN WIN VICTORY IN FIRST ESTATE SUIT

NEW YORK.—The first victory for the children of Richard Croker, late Tammany chieftain, who have engaged his widow and their stepmother, Mrs. Bala Croker, in four contests over the will of their father, was gained Monday.

A jury took but thirty minutes to decide the children were entitled to $160,000 which Richard Croker, Jr., who brought the suit, claimed his father agreed to divide share for share between his sister Ethel and his brother Howard, conditional on Richard's coming to Howard his share of the estate of their mother.

Mrs. Croker smilingly remarked after the verdict that the "game is now 2 to 1," referring to the three previous suits which she had won.

PLAYING HOOKEY COSTS MONEY ON ISLAND OF GUAM

Truancy Fine of Fifteen Cents Imposed Every Time Pupil is Not in School

AGANA, Guam.—A native mother on the island of Guam will sit all day at a school room window to prevent her offspring from playing hookey. This is not because of her desire that the child shall acquire learning, but to avoid paying the truancy fine of fifteen cents.

Chaplain W. L. Thompson, U. S. N., school superintendent, says he is endeavoring to adapt the work of education on the island to the particular needs of the natives. The Chamorro take readily to penmanship, mathematics and all kinds of mechanics. The children frequently know American history more thoroughly than youngsters in the United States of the same age.

"We have standardized the eight grammar grades and added a high school, which places the educational facilities of Guam on a par with those in the Philippines and the United States," the superintendent says.

"The industrial classes, despite our limited funds and equipment, have been especially successful. Lace making, basketry, and hemp weaving of various articles have reached a high grade of perfection. The boys in their carpenter classes made the furniture and other wooden fittings for the schools. The girls so readily take to dressmaking that American clothes are gradually replacing the ancestral costume of the native women.

"The real problem is presented by the classes in cooking and gardening. The children enter with vast knowledge of the principles of dietetics and do excellent cooking. But they refuse to carry home any of the vegetables they raise or to eat anything they cook, with one exception, cake.

"The native diet consists mainly of rice and fish, and the natives prefer the canned Alaska salmon, if they can pay for it, to the delicious fish of these waters.

"But we cannot impress upon them the desirability of eating vegetables. It is almost impossible to persuade the children or adults to even taste an unfamiliar food. Consequently the instruction in cooking and gardening, to date, has shown little practical result."

KANSAS NEWSPAPER WILL PUBLISH BIBLE AS CONTINUED STORY

Compilation Prepared for Publication by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon

TOPEKA, Kan.—A test of more than a year having proven the popularity of publishing the New Testament in serial form as a weekly feature, The Topeka State Journal, among the few if not the first newspaper in the United States to attempt such an innovation, has announced its plan to continue the series by printing the entire Bible in a "continued story" form.

The compilation has been prepared by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, widely known Topeka minister and author and editor of the Christian Herald of New York. It was on Dr. Sheldon's suggestion that the New Testament serial was started by the Journal.

The new serial will be known as "The Everyday Bible." It is a condensed form, all passages of a controversial nature or such as might be considered objectionable for public reading being eliminated. The main historical data and teachings remain.

"This form of the Bible is designed for the newspaper reader who has not the time nor perhaps the inclination to read the Bible in its entirety," said Arthur J. Carruth, Jr., manager of the Journal. It is really a busy man's Bible, told in interesting story form.

"The printing of the New Testament in serial form has aroused interest all over the English speaking world. We have letters from every state in the Union; from many parts of Canada, from Australia and from England. Several British newspapers not only inquired about the success of the undertaking but indicated their intention of adopting a like plan. A number of newspapers in the United States took up the serial.

"Our publication of the New Testament will be completed next month. We have used a 'newspaper English' version and are convinced that our readers have taken a tremendous interest in the plan."

NEXT TIME HE'LL MEASURE ITS DEPTH WITH A STICK

SUPERIOR, Wis.—After pouring a quantity of denatured alcohol into the radiator of his automobile, Arthur Hultner lit a match and held it over the opening, peering down to see how full it was. With a warning rumble the alcohol exploded, shooting a blue flame four feet in height, striking Hultner in the left eye and badly scorching his face.

Their beauty and excellent workmanship make the stamps of the British colonies prized by collectors.

"Our publication of the New Testament will be completed next month. We have used a 'newspaper English' version and are convinced that our readers have taken a tremendous interest in the plan."

BIG TEN TEAMS ENTERING FINAL WEEK'S TRAINING

Michigan and Minnesota to Furnish Feature Contest of the Week

MINNESOTA CONFIDENTLY EXPECTING A VICTORY

Wisconsin Meets Chicago at Stagg Field

CHICAGO, Ill.—All teams of the Big Ten were in the midst of their final week of training Tuesday preparing for Saturday's concluding games. Michigan and Minnesota, the two undefeated, are fighting for the championship.

Michigan and Minnesota will furnish the game whose outcome will be the most interesting. A win by Michigan would give the Wolverines a perfect record for the season and a win by Minnesota would give the Gophers a perfect record.

The reports from Ann Arbor say that it is doubtful whether the Michigan machine will scrimmage before the game. The Gophers, however, are expected to play a defense drill.

Wisconsin and Chicago meet at Stagg field. Iowa is expected to win from Northwestern. Purdue and Indiana, each with one win, are in the hunt for a place among the conference teams of power.

PRairie du CHIEN, Wis.—Campion High defeated Luther Academy, 19 to 9, in a game played at Stagg field. The game was a hard fought one, but the home team came out victorious.

COLONEL MUMMA ASSUMES FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR DECISION WHICH GAVE MICHIGAN VICTORY

CHICAGO, Ill.—Full responsibility for the decision giving Michigan the winning touchdown in the Michigan-Wisconsin game at Madison last Saturday has been assumed by Colonel Morton C. Mumma of West Point, field judge of the game.

Walter Eckersall, referee, who rendered the decision after consulting with Colonel Mumma was "subjected to unjust criticism and even mob violence" as a result of the ruling, according to Colonel Mumma, in a letter to the sporting editor of the Chicago Tribune.

"Eckersall has been subjected to unjust criticism, and even mob violence for a decision for which I alone am responsible," Colonel Mumma's letter said. "He only gave finality to the decision upon my statement to him that the play occurred."

"In arriving at my judgment of what actually took place I had to use my own eyes and decide according to the dictates of my own conscience and, having done so, I assume full responsibility for what proved to be an unfortunate defeat. The only question that ever entered my mind with reference to the play, 'did the referee blow his whistle?' Not having heard one blown, and being distant from the referee at the time, I asked him as soon as he arrived at the spot if he had blown his whistle. Upon receiving a negative reply, I gave him the facts on which he ruled."

WOLVERINES START EARNEST PRACTICE FOR GOPHER TILT

May Not Go Through Scrimmage Before Minnesota is Met Saturday

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Michigan's regulars started preparation in earnest Tuesday for the last contest of the season when they meet Minnesota on Perry field Saturday. Both teams are unbeaten so far this season and the result of their game will have an important bearing on the final western conference standings.

Robert Brown, who replaced Blott at center when the latter was injured in the Wisconsin game is expected to be the pivotal position against the Gophers. The loss of Blott will be most seriously felt on the defensive where he had showed to excellent advantage.

It is doubtful whether the players will go through any scrimmage before meeting Minnesota. Substitutes who are expected to fill in for their injured members of the team are to be pointed for their positions and coaches will divide their time between building up a defense against the Gopher plays and turning up the ground gaining machine for the final contest.

SMASH-BANG CLOSE FORMATION PLAY IN FOOTBALL IS THING OF PAST SAYS SPORT CRITIC

BY WALTER CAMP (Special Dispatch to the Tribune) Copyright, 1923.

NEW YORK.—It certainly will not take many more games like the Yale Army and West Virginia-Rutgers contest to awaken the football public and the coaches to the fact, which the writer has been predicting steadily, that the old smash-bang, close formation play is a thing of the past.

Nearly twenty years ago Yale played a "line-divide," or spread-play, in which the line of forwards was separated instead of being a solid phalanx. And that method of play won the championship for Yale.

A week ago in the second half of her Army game, after being outplayed and outscored by West Point in the first two periods, Yale opened out her line and ran riot over the Army team.

Cornell Spreads Line

Cornell is spreading her line and bringing the guards and tackles from the other side into the interference. West Virginia is doing the same, and using her shift-plays, brings a terrible pressure upon the defense.

FINLEY'S ELEVEN TAKING IT EASY FIRST OF WEEK

Squad Not Called Out for Practice at all Monday Night

TEAM BRUISED BUT ZOERB'S INJURY ONLY SERIOUS ONE

Team to Drill With Determination to Blank Waukesha

WITh no practice at all on Monday night the high school squad began this week's workout by taking things easy. Besides Zoerb's injury the men are all in good condition with the possible exception of Skaff. "Andy" hurt his knee in the Edgerton game and is walking around on a cane, but is expected to be out for practice about Wednesday. The entire team is suffering slightly from bruises but no one is seriously injured.

Scored on for the first time Saturday by Edgerton, Finley's eleven will jump into the next two weeks of drill with more determination to prevent a like happening when Waukesha comes here. So far this year they have rolled up a score of 308 to their opponents, a record that is hard to beat. It is doubtful if any other team in the state can boast such a total as this.

One thing that was noticeable in Saturday's game was the inability of the "Crows" to break up the aerial attack of the Edgerton squad. Time and time again they completed passes that netted them good gains without much opposition from the Red and Black squad. The passing game was the only yard gainer for the Edgerton team and if a man to man defense can be taught, Coach Finley will have a defense that is difficult to score on.

Paddock Records AGAIN BARRED BY NATIONAL UNION

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Owing largely to expected strength of Liverpool quotations, the wheat market here trended upward Tuesday in the early dealing exchange. December delivery wheat at Liverpool showed an adv

Monday's close. Buying of all tin deliveries here increased as a result. The opening which ranged from $1.07 to $1.08, advanced to $1.09, $1.09 and May $1.054 to $1.058, followed by slight further gains.

Selling base on denials that the United States government was contemplating relief action in Germany led to a decline in wheat prices Tuesday to an earlier advance. The close easy, 1/2¢ to 3/4¢ net lower. December $1.04 1/2 to $1.04 1/2.

Subsequently demand dwindled, many traders turning to the side line, and oats were more than weak.

Wheat and oats were firmer with wheat as a result of comparative softness of corn arrivals. After open-the corn market reacted a little then hardened again.

NEW DYE COLORS LIVING TREES IS INVENTOR'S CLAIM

Experiments Conducted on Trees in Pennsylvania
Botanical Gardens

PHILADELPHIA.—By feeding dye to the living wood, according to S. Weinberg, a chemist of this city, trees can be colored thirty-two different shades, including apple green, olive green, ebony, weathered oak, and salmon pink.

Experiments with a dye, which Weinberg has discovered, are being conducted in the botanical gardens of the University of Pennsylvania with three trees which have been presented to him by the department of botany.

Introduced into the base of the tree, the dye is diffused throughout the branches by the natural functioning of the tree, Weinberg said. Evidence is furnished by the presence in the botanical gardens of a dark blue tree, a vivid green poplar, and a salmon pink maple.

Assisted by Dr. Herbert Renner, of Germany, Weinberg also has experimented with a purple apple tree in Lansdowne, Pa.

Wood, which has undergone the coloring process, is more durable than the ordinary wood used in the manufacture of furniture, according to Weinberg, who mixes a preservative with the dye solution to be spread throughout the tree. The result, he said, is wood stained through and through, and not only on the surface, so that scratches and dents will not mar its presentability when made into furniture.

The dyeing operation is not a new one, but Weinberg declared that efforts heretofore have not been attended with success. Weinberg's method is to confine the dye to the roots of the tree by a series of borings at its butt. Above this the coloring is permitted to flow in to be drawn up the very top of the tree by pressure created, Weinberg said, when moisture evaporates in the cells of the tree. The dye is of the consistency of sap, is insoluble, and cannot be removed.

Trees of any degree of hardness will respond to the treatment and the tallest of them will be thoroughly permeated in two days, according to the experiments. The bright green poplar in the university botanical garden is sixty feet tall. Cost of the dye is nominal, less than a dollar, being required to change the hue of the biggest tree in the East.

Once the dye is injected, the tree is killed, so that the lumber does not have to be weathered so long as untreated wood. "It really is similar to embalming," Weinberg declared, "a certain element kills the pests that rot the wood."

The Alps have been at the bottom of the sea two or three times according to scientists.

TIME TO FORGET HATE SAYS BRITISH GENERAL; LEGION MAY BRING PEACE

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON.—"Get rid of the hate complex," That is the slogan of General Sir Ian Hamilton, a fighting soldier for 50 years, would like to see adopted and taken to heart by members of the British Legion and the American Legion.

"That old enemies should cease to hate each other," said Sir Ian to me, "is far more important than conferences about the war damages Germany shall pay."

"Europe especially is suffering from the hate complex. You see it where the French face the Germans, where the Hungarians face the Rumanians, where the Serbs face the Bulgarians."

Fought in Many Wars

Few have a better right to talk this way than Sir Ian. He's been a soldier for nearly half a century. He has seen hard active service in all England's wars in that period—the Afghan campaign, the first Boer war, the Nile expedition, the Burmese war, the Chitral relief force, the second Boer war, and, finally, in the great war as commander-in-chief of the army at Gallipoli.

He was chief-of-staff to Kitchener in the last years of the Boer war. He became a great friend of the famous Boer statesman—Jan Smuts. Theodore Roosevelt was another friend. The last few years he has been devoting much of his time to the affairs of the British Legion.

One of the jobs he has set for himself is to fight hate. He says our propagandists during the war did their work too well. Many people still have their war-time conceptions of Germans.

SIR IAN HAMILTON

I told him of a great American editor I know who the day after the armistice said to his men that from that time on Germans ceased to be "Huns" and "Boches," but were simply Germans again.

"That is splendid," said Sir Ian. "It illustrates the point exactly. 'I am striving by all the means in my power to show that the German of today is entirely different from the propaganda German of yesterday. My audiences have been mainly veterans of the war—men who went to the front and suffered in what they fully believed was a war to prevent future wars.'"

"The fact that I was unanimously re-elected president for the London metropolitan area of the British Legion by 223 delegates from all branches, is evidence that the fighting men coincide with my viewpoint. They were fully apprised of my ideals before the election—war on hate was my platform."

The Legions' Chance

"I wish the American and British

Legions could get together—not for athletics and after-dinner speeches—but for a serious effort to bring about a better world.

"If we want Europe and the world to settle down we must give the Germans a chance."

"The American Legion—with its million members—the men who will become the leaders of the United States, can, if it so chooses, become a wonderful organ for restoration of good feeling and peace and order in the world."

"If the American and British Legions would join hands they could come very near to framing a platform for a new era of things and the first plank in that platform would be: 'Eliminate the hate stuff.'"
